

WEDNESDAY EVENINGS IN LENT
The Episcopal Churches of York
Lent 2010

The Bible, the single most important book in Western literature, religious book of faith or cultural artifact?

Dr. Bart Ehrman is chair of Religious Studies at the University of North Carolina. We will listen to a 30 minute presentation as Dr. Ehrman explores complex ideas with clear images. Small group discussion will follow each presentation.

We begin at 6:30 PM with a light meal.
Bring a salad, side dish or bread to share.

February 24 St. Andrew's
The Early Christians and their literature

March 3 St. John the Baptist
The World of the Early Christian tradition

March 10 St. Andrew's
The tradition of Jesus in the Greco-Roman context

March 17 St. John the Baptist
The gospels: a literary and historical introduction

March 24 St. Andrew's
Jesus the Suffering Son of God
according to Mark